

so you want to be a
FILM/TV PRODUCER

SOUTHWESTERN ADVENTIST UNIVERSITY

WHAT IS A FILM/TV PRODUCER?

Being a television or movie producer is for anyone who has a penchant for micromangement, is willing to find and secure funding, and has an eye for scripts that will work great on camera. The producer has to be everything on the set. They need to review the scripts that are offered to them, find the money to fund everything, and then make sure that their staff get the job done as brilliantly as possible.

PRODUCER'S TASKS

- Oversee budgeting, staffing, talent recruitment, and technical crews.
- Edit and add graphics & credits to footage.
- Create, write, produce, shoot, and edit television commercials and/or programs.
- Coordinate with writers and editors to produce timely pieces.

“ I like the faculty. I feel like the whole department is like a family. They really want to help you out. ”

Michael Demiar, radio-TV-film emphasis student relevant classes we offer

Announcing
Audio Production
Photo & Graphic Editing
Media Techniques
Broadcast Journalism

Video Production
Film Production
Broadcasting in America
Electronic Media Mgmt.

SKILLS NEEDED

- Ability to find funding.
- Strong scriptwriting and editing ability.
- Knowledge of film & digital video technology.
- A micromanager.
- Ability to work under pressure.

HOW WE CAN HELP

Southwestern's Department of Communication consists of faculty with decades of experience. Students will have direct access to their knowledge as well as immediate access to top-level equipment and facilities at The Studios at Southwestern.

salary range:
$32,000 to $122,000

CONTACT:

Program information: magee@swau.edu
To apply: rahneeka@swau.edu